

ILLUMINATUS

Practicum on New Criminal Laws

Vydehi Institute of Law Hosts Training for Whitefield Division Police Officials

Bengaluru

Vydehi Institute of Law, Bangalore, successfully conducted the First Edition of ILLUMINATUS: TRAINING FOR PROFESSIONALS 2025 – Practicum on New Criminal Laws on March 1, 2025. This hybrid training session was designed exclusively for police officials of the Whitefield Division, equipping them with a deep understanding of newly enacted criminal laws and their practical applications.

Distinguished Resource Person

The session was led by the esteemed Sri. D.R. Venkatasudarshan, Retired Principal District and Sessions Judge, Former President, District Consumer Dispute Redressal Commission, and a renowned Resource Person at the Karnataka Judicial Academy. His vast judicial experience and expertise in criminal law reforms provided participants with an unparalleled learning opportunity.

Key Highlights of the Training

- ✓ Comprehensive Overview – Detailed discussion on the newly implemented Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita 2023, Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita 2023, and Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam 2023.
- ✓ Legal Framework & Application – Analytical discussions on crucial aspects such as Arrest, First Information Report (FIR), Charge Sheet, and Sections 41A, 35, 111, 112 of BNS.
- ✓ Constitutional Analysis – Insightful deliberation on Article 20 of the Indian Constitution and its implications.
- ✓ Interactive Engagement – An in-depth Q&A session where participants enthusiastically clarified their legal doubts.

Participation & Engagement

The event witnessed an active turnout of around 70 participants, including Investigation Officers, Circle Inspectors, and Sub-Inspectors. The Principal of Vydehi Institute of Law, Prof. (Dr.) C.G. Manjunath, was present throughout the session, reinforcing the institution's commitment to practical legal education and social responsibility.

Shaping the Future of Law Enforcement

By bridging the gap between legal theory and practical implementation, ILLUMINATUS underscores Vydehi Institute of Law's mission to nurture competent legal professionals and enhance law enforcement capabilities. The success of this inaugural edition sets the stage for future training programs aimed at fostering legal excellence.

