

Event Report:

Deepotsav - Celebrating Indian Traditions

Event Name	Deepotsav - Celebrating Indian Traditions
Date of Event	Saturday, October 18, 2025
Time	10 AM – 12 AM
Venue	College Quadrangle

1. Executive Summary

The Cultural Committee successfully hosted the annual Diwali celebration, "Deepotsav - Celebrating Indian Traditions," on October 18, 2025. The event achieved its core objectives of fostering community spirit, promoting cultural heritage, and engaging students and faculty in creative competitions. The execution of all activities was smooth and highly enjoyable, concluding successfully within the stipulated timeframe.

2. Event Execution and Highlights

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation across all six proposed competitive and collaborative activities, transforming the campus into a vibrant space that truly embodied the spirit of Diwali.

Activity	Description of Execution	Noteworthy Success
Rangoli Competition	Conducted in the College Quadrangle, participants utilized traditional materials to create intricate, festive floor art designs.	The collaborative and creative energy elevated the festive atmosphere on campus.
Mehndi Competition	Held in the designated common hall, this competition showcased the	High participation rate, reflecting strong interest in traditional arts.

	students' skill in applying complex Henna designs.
Photography Competition	Original photographs capturing the " Spirit of Diwali " were digitally displayed and judged based on composition and adherence to the theme.	Excellent quality of submissions provided a visual narrative of Indian festivities.

3. Participation, Engagement, and Feedback

The event was marked by high levels of student involvement, creativity, and energy. The smooth organization allowed both participants and spectators to fully immerse themselves in the celebration.

Faculty Enjoyment: It is particularly noteworthy that the entire faculty and administration thoroughly enjoyed the festivities. The relaxed and vibrant environment provided a positive break from the academic routine. Several faculty members participated in judging the creative activities, expressing their appreciation for the students' talent and the positive, unifying atmosphere of the "Deepotsav."

Winners' Announcement: The announcement of the winners followed the judging period, concluding the event with well-deserved recognition for the most creative and skillful participants.

Ramyashree, Esther and Gayatri	Rangoli Competition
Sneha and Shritama Mondal	Mehendi Competition winners
Naviyashree	Mehendi Consolation winner
Photography	Akah SM, Mohit P, Varshini

4. Conclusion

"Deepotsav - Celebrating Indian Traditions" was a resounding success, fulfilling its objective of promoting cultural richness and community engagement at the Vydehi Institute of Law. The high-quality submissions, energetic participation, and positive feedback from both students and faculty reaffirm the value of cultural events in holistic institutional development.

Submitted by:

Ms. Pranjali Bawane (Conveyor)	Dr. Sneha	Mr. Rajkumar
Cultural Committee	Cultural Committee	Cultural Committee

Vydehi Institute of Law Cultural Committee

Principal

Dr C G Manjunath