Introduction: On 13/03/2026 LLB and BA LLB students visited Kadugodi Police Station under the guidance of faculty, Dr. Raghunath K.S. The occasion of the visit was celebration in connection with International Women's Day.

Objectives of the Event:

- Understanding legal provisions relating to Women Protection Law in India.
- To become aware of important legal rights and responsibilities relating to women citizens.

Description of the Event:

During the event, several police inspectors addressed the gathering and explained various laws that protect women. They spoke about how these laws are meant to ensure safety, equality and justice for women in society. The officers also guided us on how these legal provisions should be used in the right way whenever required. The officers further explained some important provisions under the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita [BNS]. Topics like Dowry Death, Acid Attacks and Constitutional Rights of women were discussed. The session lasted for an hour.

Outcome:

- The session helped the students understand the seriousness of women related crimes and the legal measures available to prevent and punish them.
- The students gained immense knowledge about women's rights and legal protections.
